The LEGO Movie 2

Hi guys

Guess what? It's my birthday month! I am so excited! I turn 10 this year (double digits!) and to celebrate I'm going on a picnic with all my friends and family... oh, and my dog, Milo of course! I'll be sure to tell you all about it next month. Okay, now let me tell you about this awesome issue. One of my fave stories this month is our interview with Morgan Hipworth. He's an Aussie from Melbourne who opened his very own doughnut shop when he was only 15-years-old, how amazing is that? You can read our interview with Morgan from page 22. Can you imagine owning your own doughnut shop? I think I would go out of business because I would eat all the doughnuts! Also this month, we chat to our cover girl, Olivia Rodrigo, about how important it is for girls to get involved in STEM. Not sure what STEM is? Don't worry, we got you. Just turn to page 20 and you can read all about it, it is so interesting!

Captain Marvel is definitely my fave movie of the year so far. I got to meet Goose at the premiere. Girl power!

I Picked up this cool colouring in book this month. More #girlpower. Who rules the world? We do!

I love to take Milo for walks with my lil' sis', Sienna. Poor Milo doesn't get much exercise though. We're too busy giving her cuddles!

Chat to you next month!

all about Me

MY FAVOURITE THING ABOUT SCHOOL IS being able to play with my friends and my least favourite thing is spelling tests. I'm not a very good speller, so I always get nervous.

I TAKE SINGING LESSONS. I really enjoy singing, I sing all the time. My mum says that I could sing before I could talk!

MY BESTIE LUCIA HAD A PAMPER PARTY FOR HER BIRTHDAY.

It was so much fun! We all got our make up and nails done and then ate pizza and had cake afterwards.

I'M OBSESSED WITH SINGING AND MUSIC. If I'm not singing then I'm listening to music and dancing. I don't take dance lessons, but my aunty owns a dance school and sometimes I go and join in on one of the classes.

WHEN I'M OLDER I want to be a professional singer. My family went on a cruise once and there were singers on the ship. I think that would be the perfect job because I would get to sing and travel around with the ship at the same time.

MY HOBBIES ARE singing, music, making slime, doing colour by numbers and decorating cupcakes.

LAST YEAR AT SCHOOL I won an award for always helping others. My mum and dad were really proud of me.

MY MUM WAS BORN IN RUSSIA. She came here when she was a teenager. I have been to Russia three times to visit my mum's family. I love going there and seeing everyone.

NETBALL NEWBIE

My bestie's netball team was down a player so she asked me if I could fill in this one time. I had never played netball before in my life, but because I'm kind of sporty my bestie said I'll be fine. During the game I was very nervous but everything was going okay until I had to go into the centre to defend and faced the wrong way. I ended up letting the other team through to get a goal. Oops! I haven't played since, but that's probably for the best. It was so embarrassing.

NATASHA, 12, NSW

PANTS PULLER

It was sport day at school and I was wearing my tracksuit pants. I was standing at my desk trying to see what the teacher was writing on the board when my friend pulled on my pants to try and get me to sit down, but she pulled too hard and actually pulled my pants down to my knees. I screamed out loud when she did it too, so the whole class, including the teacher, turned to see what was going on. It was so embarrassing because everyone laughed at me, but my friend got into trouble. I felt bad for her because she didn't mean to do it.

JAYDE, 11, NSW

WEDGIE WOES

It was athletics carnival day at school and my class was practising in four lines. I had a really bad wedgie, but I was too scared to pull it out because people were standing behind me. When it was my turn to run, all I could think about was my uncomfortable wedgie so I was concentrating on running and tripped over. I landed on the grass and my sports skirt went up and everyone saw my wedgie and my bum. When I got up my face was hot and bright red and I couldn't look anyone in the eye. It was the most embarrassing day of my life and I still get embarrassed thinking about it.

MICHELLE, 10, QLD

"I was at the Video Music Awards and I really love Ariana Grande and I was going to see her perform live for the first time. Shawn Mendes was sitting diagonal from me and Ariana came on and I started to cry really hard because I was just so overwhelmed. Afterwards Shawn Mendes asked me if I was okay and everything and I think he thought I was just having a mental breakdown."

GRACE VANDERWAAL

SLOPPY SLUSHIE

One day I was shopping with my mum and was drinking a slushie that I had just bought. I was in a crowded shop when all of a sudden I dropped my slushie and it went all over me and all over the floor. I have no idea why I dropped the drink, but I don't know what was more embarrassing, the fact that I was covered in bright red slushie or my mum yelling, "Clarissa!" really loudly in the store. I was so embarrassed and mum yelling just made it all so much worse because people turned to see! CLARISSA, 9, SA

BUS BLUSH

It was a rainy day and I was stepping onto the school bus when I accidentally tripped on the steps. I ended up stumbling forward and grabbed onto the bus driver to stop myself from falling! Everyone on the bus started laughing, but the worst thing was there were lots of high school kids on the bus too. I felt my face go bright red and I had to try really hard not to start crying. I was so embarrassed and begged my mum to drive me to school the next day.

ELOISE, 11, PETERSHAM, NSW

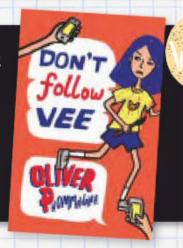

STAR SPOTTER

I was at the shopping centre with my mum, sister and friend and we were eating lunch. All of a suddden my friend cried out, "Oh my gosh, there's Delta!" So my sister, friend and I all got up really fast and ran over to talk to her, but when we got closer we realised it wasn't even her. My mum thought the whole thing was hilarious. SARAH, 11, VIC

DANCING QUEEN

Born in Portland, Oregon, USA, Ciara was eight when her career began and she appeared in radio voiceover advertisements and local television commercials. As well as acting, the talented tween also took up dance and excelled at it so much that it led to her appearing in music videos for artists such as Fifth Harmony. "Dance was my first love and I've had the incredible opportunity to have danced in music videos," she said. However, Ciara still worked hard at her actina career and the determined star, who has a knack for sketch comedy, now has a long list of television credits. She has had guest-starring roles on shows such as Coop & Cami Ask The World, Henry Danger, Bizaardvark and more.

INTRODUCING ATHENA

In the new Disney Channel Original Movie, Kim Possible, Ciara stars as Athena, a high school student who Km and Ron become friends with. "Athena is a new character who wasn't in the original cartoon series," explains Ciara. "I was very excited to bring a new character into the world of Kim Possible. I loved creating her backstory and putting parts of my personality into her." Comparing herself to the character, Ciara says, "Athena and I are very similar in the sense that we are goofy and passionate and love to make puns."

DREAM BIG

If there is one piece of advice Ciara wants to share with girls it is that anything is possible. "Nothing is too far out of reach," said the star. "When I was a young girl watching Disney Channel, it felt like being on the other side of the screen was a dream that was not possible! With determination and persistence, I made that dream come true. Whatever it is you want in life, put your energy into making it happen. Even if you face obstacles, never give up and you will reach your goals." Yep, we totally agree!

NO MORE MOVIES FOR GRACE

Singer, Grace VanderWaal is starring in the upcoming movie Stargirl and talked about how much she enjoyed the experience of being on a movie set. "I loved making the movie, like almost too much" she dished. "It was definitely one of the best experiences of my life." But even though she liked it, Grace is putting a hold on acting for the time being, "I don't think I'd want to do it again and I don't think I'd pursue acting," she said. "Maybe I'd do a movie again years from now."

LILIMAR IS WANDERLUST

Star of Nickelodeon's Knight Squad, Lilimar has spoken about how much she enjoys seeing the world. "My family and I love to travel on every one of our birthdays!," she said. "Doesn't matter if it's a city away or an ocean away, we love visiting new places and appreciating different cultures." So does she have a favourite place that she's visited? "I must say, Italy was definitely the most breathtaking place I've ever visited." she revealed.

KENZIE IS A JUSTIN FAN

When a fan asked Mackenzie Ziegler who the nicest celebrity she has ever met was, she revealed it was Justin Bieber! "I met Justin Bieber when I was eight. It was the first time I went to the 'Teen Choice Awards' and he came up with like, 10 security guards circling him and he was taking pictures on the red carpet," remembers Mackenzie. "There's pictures of me and all the Dance Mom girls crying when we saw him and then we asked him for a picture and his manager was like, 'No!' but Justin was like, 'No, no come and take a picture!' I was freaking out. I cried and I never wanted to meet anyone else after I met him!"

SELENA LOVES HER BROWN EYES

Selena Gomez has noticed that Snapchat nearly always changes user's eyes to blue on all their 'pretty" filters. "They have all the blue eyes for all the ones that are like really pretty... Why?" she asks. "Brown eyes are beautiful, everyone," she adds.

Millie Bobby Brown has revealed that her favourite toy as a child was a microphone. "It had High School Musical on it," she explained. "I could sing with Zac Efron!" Millie went on to share that she was a huge fan of the Disney Channel movies. "I watched High School Musical every single day." The actress was such a huge fan of the movies that when she met one of the film's stars she was completely starstruck. "When I met Zac Efron, I could barely speak," she admits.

............... DANIELLA TALKS PLAYING CIARA

Daniella Perkins has said that playing the role of Ciara on Nickelodeon's Knight Sauad has taught her many lessons. "Being able to play such a strong female role has taught me so much on and off screen," she said. "Just being on set and working with so many different actors every week, you pick up new things and get ideas."

HOO WE CHAT TO DISNEY CHANNEL STAR, OLIVIA RODRIGO ABOUT ACTING, EASTER AND WHY SHE LOVES STEM...

WHEN DID YOU FIRST REALISE YOU WANTED TO DO ACTING?

DO YOU THINK YOU WILL CONTINUE ACTING AS YOU GET OLDER?

DO YOU GET NERVOUS BEFORE AUDITIONS?

HOW ARE YOU SIMILAR OR DIFFERENT TO YOUR Character, paige?

STEM stands for Science, Technology, Engineering and Math, and STEM education is all about teaching skills and subjects in a way that resembles real life. It's so cool and something Olivia loves!

OLIVIA CHATS ABOUT STEM!

Can you tell us about stem and how you are involved?

"I recently participated in a campaign called "She Can STEM."
It's an incredible project that encourges women and girls to pursue their interests in science, technology, engineering, and math."

WHAT INTERESTS YOU ABOUT STEM?

"STEM is an ever expanding, ever exciting field! New innovations are being made constantly! This is precisely why it is so important for women and girls to be a part of the conversation. For so long, men have stood at the forefront of STEM innovations. Such important, far reaching decisions should never be made by a group of people who are all the same. I believe that we need a diverse group of influential people to make our diverse world a better place."

WHAT ADVICE DO YOU HAVE TO ANY READERS WHO DON'T HAVE THE CONFIDENCE TO GET INVOLVED?

"Getting involved in STEM as a girl can be a little bit scary, I'll admit. As a student in elementary school I was always discouraged from partaking in challenging math and science activities because "girls are better at English and History." If I were to give advice to my younger self or a younger girl facing the same dilemma, I would encourage them to ignore the naysayers and pursue what makes them happy and fulfilled. Seeing out your passions is more important than any person's doubt or negativity."

WERE YOU NERVOUS STEPPING INTO THE SHOES OF SUCH ICONIC AND WELL-LOVED CHARACTERS?

SADIE: "There were definitely some nerves! I know how much Kim and the cartoon means to people. I also know what she represents and I wanted to continue that I would use it to talk to my friends and get information and I think it would come in handy even if I'm not saving the world!" SEAN: "The grappling hook, so if I ever have to clean the gutters on my house, boom, I'll be done before I start."

DO YOU HAVE ANY EMBARRASSING STORIES FROM SET?

SADIE: "One moment that's actually in the blooper reel is during the scene where Sean and I are running late to class. We are supposed to barge into the room but my hand slipped off the door knob and I ran straight into the door, with Sean following behind me. He ran into me and I just couldn't stop laughing. There were a lot of wonderful, funny moments while filming."

IS RON'S POCKET PAL, RUFUS THE NAKED MOLE RAT IN THE FILM?

SEAN: "It couldn't be Kim Possible without Rufus! We get to see a new origin story for him and Ron. One thing that makes the story different is how Ron meets Rufus which is on a mission and not at a store."

DID THE CAST ALL GET ALONG WELL WITH EACH OTHER?

immediately. Sean, Ciara and I, plus Erika when she was in town, explored Vancouver together and hung out in our hotel rooms. One of my favoUrite aspects of filming was the friendships that formed,"

SEAN: "We filmed in Vancouver, so we all explored the city and saw most of the touristy stuff. It's such a beautiful city with cool architecture, integrated nature, and nice people."

SADIE: "Ciara and I did a lot of G Celebrity shopping! Surprisingly we did a LOT of escape rooms! We got so into them and kept wanting to do more even though our success rate wasn't very high!" SEAN: "Some of our best times were pickle ball games between all of us and Ciara's family." WHAT DO YOU GUYS LIKE TO GET UP TO IN YOUR SPARE TIME? SADIE: "I love to sing and occasionally write music. I love to draw and I am constantly watching movies. But, when I do have free time I really like to prioritise my friends and family. Spending time with them is my favorite thing. SEAN: "I like to play basketball and soccer, read, and draw cartoons." KIM POSSIBLE, APRIL 5 & 19, AT 5.30PM, ON PISNEY CHANNEL animals

Feathers, fur and everything in-between!

- Wombats are very shy animals and live alone. They usually rest in or near their burrows during the day and come out at night to eat.
- Wombats have long bodies that can be up to one metre long. Whoa, now that's long!
- They have a boney plate in their backside which they can use as a form a defense.
- The pouch of a wombat faces backwards. This helps protect their babies from dirt while the mother forages for food and digs burrows.
- Wombats are the only animals in the world that produce square shaped poo. Weird, right?

Help! MY CAT IS STALKING MY NEW BUDGIE! HOW CAN I SAVE MY BIRD WITHOUT BEING MEAN TO MY CAT?

Ask your mum or dad to help you move the cage to a new place that is fully out of your cat's reach. (Remember never leave the cage in direct sun or draught). Make some hidey-holes to put in your budgie's cage, so he can hide from your cat's stare. If you do notice your cat gazing at the cage, quietly sneak up and squirt him with a water pistol. Also, give your cat lots of toys to hunt and play with so he has things to keep him busy and hopefully he'll forget all about your little budgie.

EXOTIC AND BEAUTIFUL PLACES. THIS MONTH WE'RE OFF TO...KENYA!

Quick FACTS

The Republic of Kenya is a country located on the continent of Africa, and is right near the equator. Kenya's capital and largest city is Nairobi, which is known as the "green city in the sun". Tourists love Kenya because there are plenty of amazing animals that live there, such as leopards, elephants, zebras and lions, and they have the chance to see them in the wild while on safari. In Kenya, people speak English and Swahili languages.

Fantastic FOODS

If you're heading to Kenya, you'll most likely have the classic staple, Ugali. It looks like mashed potato, but is cornmeal and water made into a thick, heavy paste. Kenyan Pilau (a spicy rice) is made with spices such as cinnamon, and is often enjoyed with stews made with beef, goat or chicken. Roasted meats (known as nyama choma) are also very common in Kenya, served with veggies.

Jambo from kenya!

Super SCHOOLS

Unfortunately not all kids in Kenya attend school, despite it being free and compulsory. There is a severe shortage of teachers in Kenyan schools, with an average of four teachers in each school. For those that are lucky enough to attend, kindergarden starts between ages five to seven, after one year of pre-school. Like Australia, the school year starts in January and goes to around November of the same year.

Sights OS==

Kenya is home to some of the prettiest natural sights in the world. Parks such as the Masai Mara National Reserve has an annual wilderbeest migration, and at the Amboseli National Park you can see elephants and giraffes with a backdrop of the world famous Mt Kilimanjaro, which is in the neighbouring country of Tanzania. Olare Orok and Ol Kinyei Conservancy are also great for spotting some big cats and rare, beautiful big animals.

A flock of pink Flamingos visit Lake Nakuru.

Giraffes in the National park of Kenya, Africa

Kenya is actually named after Mt Kenya, the tallest mountain in the area, at 5,199 metres!

Stay tuned for an upcoming movie called, Uglydolls. The film is about the cute town of Uglyville, where weirdness is celebrated, strangeness is special and beauty is always about more than just looks. But then Moxy discovers a town called Perfection where all "perfect" dolls receive training before entering the real world to find the love of a child.

Great news! They're making another Hotel Transylvania movie! There's no word yet as to what the storyline will be about, but seeing as it's set to be released around Christmas in 2021, we're guessing it will have a festive theme! We can't wait!
